FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular dated 3rd—6th January 1949.

ALL HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS.

Regarding restriction of the investigation of arrear claims of officers by the Audit Office, to claims which are not over three years old.

No. 509—Bii. As per Note 5 to Article 11, Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I, " Heads of Departments are Authorised to sanction the investigation of arrear claims of all Officers appointed by them, but as a working rule, a claim which is more than five years old should not ordinarily be admitted. When, however, the validity of an old claim is established by acceptable evidence, a r port of the circumstances under which the delay occurred should be made to Government, so that suitable action may be taken to prevent the recurrence of such cases."

Agreeably to the orders contained in G. O. No. Fl. 4049—G. F. 66-48, dated 1st November 1948, the period within which the investigation of arrear claims of officers by the Audit Office may be made is reduced to three years. The Heads of Departments may, therefore, reject arrear claims of all officers appointed by them which have remained in abeyance for over three years, and for which no satisfactory explanation is forthcoming.
